APM SIGs – Get involved

The APM SIGs have an important role to play within APM in creating and disseminating new knowledge.

- Input to creating and disseminating new knowledge
- Create knowledge sharing opportunities on current interests of the profession – CPD!
- Further the understanding and practice of tools and techniques
- Inspire future project managers
- Give back to the project management profession
- Learn new skills
- Many more reasons!

APM Women in Project Management SIG - 2022 to the future

THE CHARTERED BODY FOR THE PROJECT PROFESSION

The APM Women in Project Management SIG (WiPM) provide the opportunity to promote gender diversity, and inclusion, a no-barrier culture, where all women project managers have the potential to develop a highly rewarding career: the future relies on changes in working practices.

The SIG builds a collaborative community and grow dynamic networks with members and links with like minded organisations, sharing best practice in project management and professionalism.

The SIG has been supporting the APM mentoring scheme for women working towards Chartership and becoming ChPP's.

In spite of the challenges posed by Covid-19 the committee had a very successful year and delivered a number activities; International Women's Day events and will complete the term with the annual conference.

The Benefits of being a committee member are various; first it allows you to grow your network, give the opportunity to share experience, develop leadership and career opportunities.

The committee need individuals like you along with great ideas to make a difference in the community. So what are you waiting for, send your application!
